Editorial

Educational Trend (A Journal of RIE, NCERT, Ajmer) is a peer-reviewed biannual journal brought out by the Regional Institute of Education, NCERT, Ajmer with an aim to provide an academic forum to teachers, teacher-educators, educational administrators and researchers for their ideas, views and experiences on innovative educational practices. current issues, emerging trends and quality researches in the field of education and from all areas pertaining to the field of education including Science, Mathematics, Humanities and Social Sciences. In this issue seventeen research papers are included.

The research paper by Reni Francis highlights that Perception on Health as an indicator towards a Welfare State. with concluding remark that it is the time to change the attitude of teachers and students towards use of ICT in teaching-learning process. The research paper by Ravail Singh focuses on Indigenous Healthcare Practices among the People of Himalayan Region of Jammu and Kashmir. The research paper by Jagannath Behera explores the Does Anganwadi impact on the nutritional status of Children? The research paper by Deepika Singh and Bharti Prakash discusses about Food intake of pregnant women: A study among the pregnant women of a tertiary care hospital in Ajmer, Rajasthan, India. The research paper by Shivakumar Kandekar and concludes that Effectiveness of Educational Intervention on Sanitation and Hygiene among Tribal School Children. The research paper by Stuti Priya Minz and Kh. Moirangleima emphasizes on Impact of Urbanization on the Tribal Population of Jharkhand. The research paper by Ankita Sankhla highlights that Skill development and Employability: Essential Elements of the Modern Era. The research paper by रेखा रानी and सपना वर्मा focuses on दृष्टि बाधित बालकों के विकास में समावेशी शिक्षा की भूमिका. The research paper by Sagolshem Sophia Devi and Khundrakpam Moirangleima explores the Challenges of Fisherwomen of Loktak Lake, Manipur. The research paper by Ashwani Kumar Gupta discusses about Human Population Growth and Its Effect on the Forest Ecosystem. The research paper by अन्नपूर्णा देवी and नागेन्द्र कुमार and concludes that साइबर बुलिंग के कारण बच्चों में उत्पन्न होने वाले तनाव व इसका समाधान. The research paper by Sakshi Sharma and Komal Alwani emphasizes on Equitable Use of ICT in Education: Issues and Concerns. The research paper by Pushpendra Yadav and Meenakshi Ingole highlights that Online/ICT based Education and COVID-19 Pandemic: Challenges for School Education in India. The research paper by Romin Jain focuses on Transitioning from Digital Monitoring to Digital Self-care among adolescents. The research paper by Bhavana explores the Cyber Laws Governing Online World in India. The research paper by Anamika Bhatti and Vipin Kumar discusses about The Spatial Analysis of Demographic Studies Of Ujh Watershed, Jammu And Kashmir. The research paper by Nasrin and Komy Biswas and concludes that Attitude of senior secondary school students toward e-learning.

Chief Editor